

Science at Home: Colourful calculations

At the Whipple Museum we are very proud of our collection of maths equipment, including this cheerful “little professor” calculator. When you’ve coloured him in, see if you can find and draw:

Something to measure distance with

Something to help you tell the time

Something with numbers on it

Something to help you weigh things