

With so many activities to choose from, it's difficult to know where to start. Here's a selection you might want to try

Science fans

- Make a Nebula Jar with the Cambridge Science Centre
- Explore the night sky with the Whipple Museum
- Sing along with the Polar Museum and learn about climate change

Get making

- Have a go at making your own shadow puppets - there are loads to try.
- Bake some WWII inspired biscuits with the Museum of Cambridge
- Learn how to code the micro:bit with the Centre for Computing History

Nature lovers

- Build a dormouse nest with the Museum of Zoology
- Discover nocturnal animals with the Museum of Technology
- Start the next day with some morning birdsong from the Museum of Zoology

Something for your imagination

- Get cosy and listen to a story inspired by the objects in the Fitzwilliam Museum
- Take a 'ghostly' after-dark tour of the Sedgwick Museum
- Let Indefinite Articles performers take you on a whirlwind journey for some crystal treasure

Join Maddie and Greg LIVE at 7pm

Don't forget to watch live to help Maddie and Greg find clues, solve puzzles, and search the tropical rainforests and deserts of the Botanic Garden.

Need some more ideas? Try these suggested itineraries

OPTION ONE

4.30pm: Build a dormouse nest with the Museum of Zoology. For more den building ideas, check out our Sleepover Guide

5.00pm: Make a shadow puppet - you'll find lots of different versions to try

6.00pm: Take a break, then try some Climate Change Karaoke with the Polar Museum

7.00pm: Join Maddie and Greg LIVE from the Botanic Garden

8.00pm: Wind down with a bedtime story. Try The Wedding Treasure, or for under 5s, Night and Day.

OPTION TWO

4.30pm: Get creative with science and make some balloon rocket racers from the Cambridge Science Centre

5.30pm: Meet some ghostly characters at the Sedgwick Museum

6.00pm: Take a break, then have a go identifying the Twilight visitors from the Museum of Technology

7.00pm: Join Maddie and Greg LIVE from the Botanic Garden

8pm: Settle down under the stars and find out more about the night sky with the Whipple Museum

And don't forget the next day!

7.00am: Explore the morning birdsong with the Museum of Zoology

8.00am: Stretch and get ready for the day with some yoga poses from the Museum of Classical Archaeology (in the Sleepover Guide).

9.00am: Plan out what other activities you'd like to try next - you'll be able to access the Sleepover webpage throughout half-term.

We'd love to know what you've been up to

Twitter/Instagram @CamUnivMuseums, Facebook University of Cambridge Museums